

Epic

One stop shop for learning technologies, online and web

Epic has been a UK market leader in custom/bespoke e-learning since 1986. Over the years the quality of their work has been recognised by numerous industry awards. The most recent being a 2009 e-learning age award for 'Best use of mobile learning' for a basic skills programme developed for the army.

Their product and service capability is broad, flexible and client focussed. Whether you are looking for a quick turnaround on a simple project or a complete end-to-end solution they can meet all your online learning needs.

Epic offers clients:

- A passion for e-learning design: Their creative approach embeds learning and skills to deliver proven business benefits based on best practice design principles.
- Innovation in online learning: Leading-edge insight such as application of Web 2.0 collaborative tools and Moodle functionality informs their solutions.
- Commitment to e-learning accessibility: All solutions are guaranteed to meet industry standards for accessibility in e-learning making their solutions available for all.
- Broad service capability: A range of complementary services add value to client solutions. These include consultancy, technical support via their dedicated Service Desk, Epicentre our in-house test suite and website design.